Proceedings

1 THE CLERK: Civil Cause for Telephone Status
2 Conference, docket number 18-cv-2710, Capogrosso v.
3 Gelbstein, et al.

4 Will the parties please state your names for 5 the record?

6 MR. CAPOGROSSO: Mario Capogrosso, plaintiff,
7 21 Sheldrake Place, New Rochelle, NY 10804.

8 MR. THOMPSON: Good morning.

9 James Thompson from the Office of the New York
10 State Attorney General for the state defendants and I'm 11 joined by Barbara Montana (ph.) who is in-house counsel
12 for DMV.

13 MR. SMART: Yeah, my name is Mr. David Smart.
14 I'm here on my behalf.

15 THE CLERK: The Honorable Lois Bloom presiding.

16 THE COURT: Good morning, Mr. Capogrosso, Mr.
17 Thompson, Ms. Montana and Mr. Smart.

18 This is a telephone status conference in 19 plaintiff's civil rights action. I last spoke with the 20 parties on May 5th, 2020.

22 this matter and Mr. Capogrosso, you wrote to the Court
23 and stated that you had served interrogatories on Mr.
24 Smart before the discovery deadline. However, Mr. Smart
25 never responded.

Proceedings

1           And I directed you to provide the
2 interrogatories to the Court to review and I informed the 3 parties that this would be the one exception to the 4 discovery deadline. That's in ECF entry number 148.

5           I reviewed your interrogatories and I directed
6 Mr. Smart to respond to the interrogatories and I
7 extended his deadline to do so. That's ECF entry number
8 154.

9           When Mr. Smart did not respond, Mr. Capogrosso
10 moved for a default judgment and sanctions against Mr.
11 Smart. That's ECF 157.

12           As Mr. Smart is like Mr. Capogrosso, proceeding
13 pro se, although Mr. Smart is not an attorney like Mr.
14 Capogrosso, I denied the request for default judgment and 15 sanctions and set today's telephone conference to get Mr.
16 Smart to answer the interrogatories orally on the record.
17 That's ECF entry number 159.

18           Mr. Smart has since informed the Court by 19 letter, that he is receiving assistance from the City Bar
20 Justice Center Pro Se project and that he is drafted
21 responses to the interrogatories and the letter was from 22 back in February and he said that they were going to be 23 served.

24           Mr. Capogrosso, have you gotten Mr. Smart's
25 responses to the interrogatories?

Proceedings

1 MR. CAPOGROSSO: I did receive a document. It
2 is not signed, Judge, and that was one of the comments I
3 wanted to make. It's not signed by defendant Smart. So
4 I don't know who wrote it and whether it's relevant or 5 material. It is also dated after the date that you
6 required defendant Smart to respond by. It's dated
7 February 24th. You required him to respond by February
8 12th.

9 There's also -- it replies with the words
10 "information and belief" and according to -- Black's
11 Dictionary indicates information and belief is 12 information not made on firsthand knowledge but based on 13 secondhand knowledge.

14 THE COURT: So again, as far as the timeliness,
15 Mr. Smart's letter which is ECF 59, requested an 16 extension of time nunc pro tunc to serve his responses
17 and I granted that request at ECF number 162. And I kept 18 today's conference as scheduled to ensure that you have 19 responses and if you're saying that the responses sent 20 were not signed, I'm sure that's an oversight but in 21 order to correct it, I'm willing to go through this on 22 the record as I intended with Mr. Smart.

23 Mr. Smart?

24 MR. SMART: Yeah.

25 THE COURT: Are you willing today to answer

Proceedings

1 some of these questions on the record, so that we could
2 get this matter completed?

3 MR. SMART: Yeah.

4 THE COURT: Okay, sir. So Mr. Smart, I am
5 going to ask you to raise your right hand, please.

6 MR. SMART: Yeah.

7 D A V I D S M A R T ,

8 having been first duly sworn, was examined and 9 testified as follows:

10 THE COURT: And can you state your full name,
11 sir?

12 MR. SMART: Yeah, my name is David Smart.

13 THE COURT: And Mr. Smart, were you employed
14 at the Brooklyn South Traffic Violations Bureau located
15 at 2875 West 8th Street in Brooklyn, New York, sir?

16 MR. SMART: Yeah, I was once employed there but 17 I am no longer there.

18 THE COURT: Okay. So that answers question 1
19 and 2. What was your job when you were working there,
20 sir?

21 MR. SMART: I was a security guard.

22 THE COURT: And who was your employer? Who 23 paid your wages when you were employed there?

24 MR. SMART: Yeah, the -- I started with a
25 company called PEC, started -- I started on 2/7 to '16,

Proceedings

1 2016. I was there the 2015 when this (indiscernible)
2 occurred with PEC. And then I resumed -- when PEC left,
3 I resumed working with Explorer (ph.) from 2/20 to --
4 2/2016 to October 8, 2020.

5 THE COURT: So you're not currently working at 6 Brooklyn South Traffic Violations Bureau; is that
7 correct, sir?

8 MR. SMART: No, yes, it's correct because I
9 left there since October 20, 2020 -- October 8th, sorry,
10 October 8th, 2020.

11 THE COURT: So October 8th of 2020, you stopped
12 working at the Brooklyn South Traffic Violations?

13 MR. SMART: Yeah, yeah, I was working for 14 Explorer at the -- at that time.

15 THE COURT: Okay. And from -- I think you said
16 2016 until 2020, you were working at the Brooklyn South
17 Traffic Violations Bureau; is that correct?

18 MR. SMART: Yeah, with Explorer Company, a 19 different company, not PEC. PEC left and we were -- they 20 were replaced by Explorer, a security company located on 21 the 151st Street -- 60 51st Street in Manhattan.

22 THE COURT: So you're basically saying there
23 were different names of the employer because different
24 security firms got the contract but you were there from 25 2015 until 2020; is that --

Proceedings

1 MR. SMART: Yeah, yes, yes. It's how we did --
2 we had -- we had about five -- five different security
3 companies, replacing one another.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So now I am going to ask you
5 the question that Mr. Capogrosso wrote at number 5, this
6 is on document 149-1. He asked, who told you to approach
7 Mario Capogrosso on the morning of May 11th, 2015?

8 MR. SMART: Nobody -- nobody told me anything.
9 He was -- he was -- he -- he -- he came in. I was really
10 by the door, he came in -- he came in aggressively,
11 raised his hand up and went to the line and then
12 continuously looking at me, you know?

13 So I am looking and looking, we were looking at 14 each other, and so -- and I say -- I say, wait a minute,
15 let me do -- what's going on here? So I went -- I said
16 oh, why are you looking at me? You see, I'm the one that 17 looking at him. I said you are looking at me so like you
18 want to start something. He say I was -- I was the one
19 that was looking at him.

20 You know, all of the sudden -- all of the 21 sudden, I was shocked though because I was knowing -- I
22 was knowing for a long time. I was shocked. He just 23 punched me in the chest and I had to hold onto the rail.
24 I had to hold onto the rail and then some police officer
25 came, everybody came around. Then they say hey, you ave

Proceedings

1 to do something about this guy. So I -- I say no, I'm
2 going to go and -- Danielle (ph.) came to me and said
3 what happened. I said, my -- my response was say well go
4 61 on him, so I went to 6-0, I got 6-1 on him and two
5 police officers came with me, not too long, they came 6 with me. Then they wanted to talk to him and he was 7 nowhere around. They waited for quite a while and trying 8 to be -- they look around. I checked -- they checked the 9 restroom. They checked many other places. He wasn't
10 anywhere on the ground. He was gone.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MR. SMART: And then they told me that the only
13 thing I can do, I can contact the One Police Plaza. I
14 went back to the 6-0 and they gave me a form to fill out
15 and I sent out the -- the -- to One Police Plaza and One
16 Police Plaza sent me a response that -- they -- they 17 going to have a conversation with him or I was going to 18 say, or they're going to send me a letter and the rest
19 was history.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Smart, I'm going to ask you
21 question number 6 which is similar to question number 5.
22 Did defendant Alan Gelbstein, defendant Ida Trachin,
23 defendant Danielle Calvo and/or Boshra Vahdat, tell you
24 to approach Mr. Capogrosso on the morning of May 11th, 25 2015?

Proceedings

1 MR. SMART: No way. No way.

2 THE COURT: Thank you, sir.

3 MR. SMART: They were not even -- they were not 4 even near.

5 THE COURT: Thank you. Thank you, sir. Thank 6 you. So I have gotten Mr. Smart to answer the 7 interrogatories under oath. I will get a copy of this 8 conference transcript made part of the record and that in 9 my mind, Mr. Capogrosso, has eliminated this issue which 10 has caused some consternation and I do know that Judge
11 Komitee has set a scheduled for the defendant's summary
12 judgment motion which means that they're going to serve 13 you with their motion on March 31st of 2021 and you have 14 until April 30th of 2021 to serve your opposition and 15 that they will reply and both sides should file their 16 portions of the motion on May 10th, 2021.

17 Let me just mention, Mr. Thompson, that there
18 is a special notice provision under 56.2 of the Local 19 Rules which although Mr. Capogrosso is an attorney and he 20 is not entitled to the special solicitude that pro se
21 litigants are entitled to, it may be smart for you to 22 just to include the notice, so that for any determination
23 to be made, you've gone above and beyond what your duty
24 is and provided him special notice of how to oppose a
25 motion for summary judgment.

Proceedings

1 And Mr. Capogrosso, because you are an
2 attorney, you are expected to look at Local Rule 56.1 and 3 to file a counter statement to whatever 56.1 statement is 4 filed by the defendants.

5 Mr. Smart, I know that you're still working
6 with the City Bar and that they were looking for limited
7 scope pro bono counsel for the purpose of moving on your 8 behalf for summary judgment. Is that correct, sir?

9 MR. SMART: Yeah, I was called yesterday by Kat
10 Ataka (ph.) and they say that she is looking for one to 11 represent me.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MR. SMART: And she is going to let me know as 14 soon as possible.

15 THE COURT: So you please stay in touch, so
16 that when the motion is made to Judge Komitee, he'll have 17 everybody's motion at the same time, okay?

18 MR. SMART: Yeah.

19 THE COURT: Mr. Capogrosso, do you have any 20 questions for the Court before we adjourn?

21 MR. CAPOGROSSO: I do. I do.

22 THE COURT: Yes.

23 MR. CAPOGROSSO: I do and I will keep it short 24 because I will waste the Court's time and I don't want to 25 do that but I do have several questions. Number one,

Proceedings

1 will I be getting a copy of this deposition, your Honor?

2 THE COURT: Are you going to get a copy of the 3 transcript of today's --

4 MR. CAPOGROSSO: Of the transcript --

5 THE COURT: -- conference?

6 MR. CAPOGROSSO: -- yes.

7 THE COURT: Yes, you are sir.

8 MR. CAPOGROSSO: Yes, thank you.

9 May I ask Attorney Thompson concerning my
10 deposition which I have not received yet and I've sent 11 him a copy of mine.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Thompson?

13 MR. CAPOGROSSO: And when am I going to get it?

14 THE COURT: Mr. Thompson, can you get Mr.
15 Capogrosso a copy of his deposition transcript please?

16 MR. THOMPSON: Certainly, we can do that.

17 MR. CAPOGROSSO: When am I going to get it and 18 is it going to be a hard copy or an electronic file? I
19 sent you a hard copy.

20 MR. THOMPSON: If you would like, I can email
21 you a digital copy this afternoon.

22 MR. CAPOGROSSO: I don't want a digital copy, I
23 want a hard copy. I sent you a hard copy. I would like
24 a hard copy (indiscernible).

25 THE COURT: Sir, sir, sir?

Proceedings

1 MR. CAPOGROSSO: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Nobody is in their office, so if
3 what you're asking for him to print it in a printer and 4 put it in the mail to you, it's going to take longer.
5 Don't you have a printer at your home where he could
6 email it to you and you could print it out for yourself?

7 MR. CAPOGROSSO: Judge, I would like it the way
8 I sent it to Attorney Thompson. That's how I would like 9 it, hard copy.

10 THE COURT: Mr. Thompson, is there a way that 11 you could get it printed in your office and sent to Mr.
12 Capogrosso?

13 MR. THOMPSON: We could but what I would ask in 14 return, it's much more useful for us to have copies of 15 transcripts in digital formats because when he sends
16 things to us in hard copy, we have to have someone go
17 through page-by-page and scan it.

18 So what I would say is if we're going to print
19 out a hard copy for him, I would request a digital copy
20 of the transcripts he's taken.

21 MR. CAPOGROSSO: That's fine. That's fine.
22 That's fine.

23 THE COURT: So Mr. Capogrosso --

24 MR. CAPOGROSSO: That's fine.

25 THE COURT: -- they will print out a copy for

Proceedings

1 you because that's your preference and he said could you
2 please email him --

3 MR. CAPOGROSSO: Absolutely.

4 THE COURT: -- a digital copy of the 5 depositions that you took, okay?

6 MR. CAPOGROSSO: Well, normally the court
7 reporter prints out a hard copy. I've done this for a
8 while. A hard copy, they do, they send you a hard copy
9 of (indiscernible). So that's fine. We'll make a hard
10 copy and as soon as I get a hard copy, I'll send you a
11 digital copy.

12 In terms of the deposition, Judge, this is the 13 Court's deposition, am I allowed to (indiscernible) any 14 question?

15 THE COURT: No.

16 MR. CAPOGROSSO: I am not.

17 THE COURT: You're done. You're done.

18 MR. CAPOGROSSO: All right. Okay.

19 (Indiscernible).

20 THE COURT: Was there anything else today, Mr.
21 Capogrosso before we adjourn?

22 MR. CAPOGROSSO: When will I get the hard copy,
23 Attorney Thompson?

24 MR. THOMPSON: I -- let me check and see. I
25 will try to get it in the mail for you by the end of the

Proceedings

1 wee, does that work?

2 MR. CAPOGROSSO: That's fine. That will be
3 great.

4 THE COURT: And likewise, I'll get the court
5 reporter's to transcribe today's conference and I will
6 endeavor to get it to you by the end of next week, Mr.
7 Capogrosso.

8 MR. CAPOGROSSO: All right. I'm not wanting to 9 waste the Court's time but I have one more comment that I
10 would like to ask Attorney Thompson and as well as the 11 attorney for the DMV. This was brought up at the 12 deposition of defendant Gelbstein. May I ask Attorney 13 Thompson?

14 THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Capogrosso.

15 MR. CAPOGROSSO: Fine. At the attorney of 16 Attorney Gelbstein, you testified that there were no
17 ticket brokers in his office. Defendant Calvo indicated
18 he saw ticket brokers in his office.

19 THE COURT: I'm having a difficult time, Mr.
20 Capogrosso, understanding --

21 MR. CAPOGROSSO: Fine.

22 THE COURT: -- what you're saying. I don't 23 know if it's the line or you're speaking not into the 24 phone but please, you are asking Mr. Thompson a question
25 about Gelbstein's deposition, so what is the question?

Proceedings

1 MR. CAPOGROSSO: Yes. The question is at his
2 deposition, I'm speaking into the phone now, he indicated
3 that there were no ticket brokers in his office, Jewish
4 ticket brokers in his office. Defendant Calvo indicated
5 that there were. She saw them. I saw them. I was there
6 ten years. He indicated that he was not pleading
7 motorists guilty on a sidebar with Judge Bloomstein. I
8 indicated I saw that. He indicated that he might have -- 9 might have --

10 THE COURT: What is the question that you have,
11 Mr. Capogrosso?

12 MR. CAPOGROSSO: The question is is this, your 13 Honor. Your Honor, the question is this. These are 14 allegations of wrongdoing on behalf of -- by Defendant
15 Gelbstein by myself on behalf -- by defendant Gelbstein
16 by myself. Has the Attorney General's office opened up
17 an investigation concerning these allegations of 18 wrongdoing with respect to defendant Gelbstein?

19 THE COURT: Mr. Capogrosso, sir, with all due
20 respect --

21 MR. CAPOGROSSO: Yes.

22 THE COURT: -- you are an attorney. If you
23 want to ask a FOIA request of the State regarding any 24 investigation, you could do that but Mr. Thompson is not 25 going to have to answer your questions today and again,

Proceedings

1 as far as the summary judgment goes, if there are
2 inconsistencies in the testimony of the witnesses, you
3 could use that for whatever purpose is, you could use for 4 whatever purpose you believe will help you sustain your 5 burden as the plaintiff in this civil rights action but 6 that's not the purpose of today's call.

7 So I am not going to have Mr. Thompson have to 8 answer whether there's an investigation into these 9 allegations. You say there was testimony that 10 contradicted Gelbstein's testimony. You can point that 11 out in your papers to the Court and make your best 12 argument but that is not for Mr. Thompson today and if 13 you want to file a FOIL request with the State to find 14 out if there has been an investigation, you're an 15 attorney, sir, you're free to do that.

16 MR. CAPOGROSSO: I understand that.

17 THE COURT: Okay?

18 MR. CAPOGROSSO: One more -- I don't want to 19 waste the Court's time, I'll take one more minute.

20 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

21 MR. CAPOGROSSO: With respect to your
22 questioning of defendant Smart, now I would ask that a
23 more precise question because part of the question was 24 who told defendant Smart -- who told you to approach me,
25 approach, the word was approach.

Proceedings

1 THE COURT: He said no one did.

2 MR. CAPOGROSSO: Now defendant Smart --

3 THE COURT: He said no one did. And he clearly
4 talked about that you walked in, were staring at him, he 5 was staring at you, because you were staring at him and 6 that's why he approached you. That's what his sworn 7 testimony was.

8 MR. CAPOGROSSO: He didn't say that he
9 approached me.

10 THE COURT: Yes, he did.

11 MR. CAPOGROSSO: That's the question I want
12 more precise answer. He never said he approached me.

13 THE COURT: He said he approached you. He said
14 he approached you --

15 MR. CAPOGROSSO: All right. I'll look at the 16 deposition.

17 THE COURT: -- for staring at him.

18 MR. CAPOGROSSO: I'll look at the transcript.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MR. CAPOGROSSO: All right. Fine. Thank you,
21 Judge.

22 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else, Mr. Thompson
23 before we adjourn today?

24 MR. THOMPSON: Yes, your Honor, one quick
25 matter and it may be for Judge Komitee. I noticed in Mr.

Proceedings

1 Smart's submission that he's contemplating filing his own
2 motion for summary judgment which would presumably go on 3 a different and alter timetable than ours.

4 THE COURT: Hopefully not, hopefully not.
5 Hopefully, whoever is filing for him will be able to file
6 something short and sweet within the time frame set by 7 the Court and if not, they'll make the application to 8 Judge Komitee.

9 MR. THOMPSON: Okay. Our request was just that 10 we, you know -- our time table be harmonized with that 11 one but we can see what happens then.

12 THE COURT: Stay with your time table unless 13 you need an extension of time and then you should 14 approach Mr. Capogrosso before approaching Judge Komitee.

15 MR. THOMPSON: Thank you, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Anything further, Mr. Smart, before
17 we adjourn here today?

18 MR. SMART: No, what I -- what I would like to 19 say to Mr. Capogrosso is that I have known him -- your 20 Honor, I have known Mario, I used to work for Alexanders
21 and that was how the whole thing started and I was 22 talking him and I say oh, he used to work for Alexanders
23 also. At what part --

24 MR. CAPOGROSSO: No, this is off the record.

25 MR. SMART: No, no, no, no this is very --

Proceedings

1 THE COURT: No, we're still on the record.

2 MR. SMART: This is very -- this is very
3 important. This is very important because that is where 4 you and me became we're talking about this and then we're 5 talking about Alexanders and all those kind of stuff and 6 then -- then he also told me that he's so lonely where he 7 lives and he would like to find a place, a club or some 8 sort. So I told him about Log Cabin, that was a club on 9 23rd Street and Avenue Z and -- Town Coffee (ph.) on 20 - 10 - on 18th Street and Avenue Z. And we went on -- that 11 went on, he carry on and you impressed me for introduce 12 you to those clubs. So you know, I am just shocked that 13 this nonsense will come to this kind of a area which I
14 wasn't expecting and that's all I have to say because I'm 15 very shocked.

16 MR. CAPOGROSSO: Well, this is nonsense. I'm 17 out of work. My career has been ruined, David, ruined.
18 I don't have to explain --

19 THE COURT: Again --

20 MR. CAPOGROSSO: -- (indiscernible) the things
21 that you created, (indiscernible) stopped.

22 THE COURT: Mr. Capogrosso --

23 MR. CAPOGROSSO: There was all kinds of 24 nonsense.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Capogrosso, again --

Proceedings

1 MR. CAPOGROSSO: Yes, Judge.

2 THE COURT: -- you're litigating the case --

3 MR. CAPOGROSSO: I understand.

4 THE COURT: -- Mr. Smart just stated on the 5 record that he's shocked. It has nothing to do with the 6 merits of the case. He's shocked.

7 MR. CAPOGROSSO: Fine, Judge.

8 THE COURT: He's entitled to his feelings.

9 Is there anything else that anybody needs to 10 address today, otherwise I am adjourning the conference.
11 All discovery is closed.

12 MR. CAPOGROSSO: Okay, David.

13 THE COURT: The defendants have gotten
14 permission from Judge Komitee to move for summary
15 judgment and the schedule has been set by Judge Komitee
16 and any alteration of that schedule should only be made
17 on application to Judge Komitee after the parties have 18 spoken about it if they need any extension of time. That 19 works on both sides, Mr. Capogrosso. If you need more
20 time, you need to contact Mr. Thompson. If Mr. Thompson
21 needs more time, he needs to contact you and the Court
22 could always grant it even if one side or the other says
23 no.

24 So again, I am saying that the summary judgment
25 schedule remains in effect. I have said to look at the

Proceedings

1 Local Rules, Mr. Thompson, to make sure that you're 2 complying with them, that goes for you as well, Mr.
3 Capogrosso. They'll get you the transcript of the 4 deposition. You'll get them the transcripts. I will get 5 the record made from today's conference and make that 6 transcript available to you, Mr. Capogrosso and with 7 that, we are adjourned.

8 MR. CAPOGROSSO: Thank you.

9 THE COURT: Thank you everybody very much.

10 MR. SMART: Thank you, your Honor.
